Debut Photography Show

The Finger Lakes Photography Group will be presenting its first public photo exhibit in Wood Library's Community Room during the month of June. A public reception will be held on June 5 from 7pm to 8:30pm. Drop by to see the show and welcome the group.

Summer for Grownups

In the summer adult programming at Wood Library slows down a bit to make room for all the youth programs. But we've still got things happening. Upcoming events:

- Computer Basics June 13. Get a taste of computing. $5 fee; no fee if age 60 & over.
- 20th Century Black Author Lecture June 19. Prof. Vincent F. A. Golphin (RIT). Free reading list.
- Café 10am-Noon on June 27.
- Digital Photography June 26 & 28. This 2-part class is for anyone age 60 & over. Taught by Peter Blackwood and sponsored by Ontario Co. Office for the Aging.
- Dave Ruch Concert for all ages on August 15. Traditional songs of New York State at 7pm. Wood Library and Ontario Co. Historical Society.
- Intro to Podcasts on August 20 and Podcast Lab on August 22. Free for age 60-plus or $5 each session for all others.
- Most Wanted Author in July & August at the Main Floor. Exciting adult reading trivia game—Get clues, find the author, win a prize.

Me & My Guy

Tuesday June 12 at 7-7:30pm
Daddies and Grandpas are invited to be special guests at this story program for 3 - 8 year olds. Stories will feature fathers and their children. No registration needed. In the Community Room, 2nd Floor.

Focus on Summer Reading

Did you know? Reading for fun and pleasure can help with reading comprehension, speed and vocabulary. The 2007 New York State Summer Reading Program will help children and teens maintain and improve reading levels over the summer while they have fun with books, activities, Internet, arts, crafts, and friends. This year's children's theme is "Get a Clue @ Your Library" and the young adult theme is "You Never Know @ Your Library."
