Making Sense of Election Year 2008

On March 10 at 7pm Dr. DeWayne Lucas, Professor of Political Science at Hobart and William Smith Colleges will help us make sense of Election Year 2008. He will review the US election process and compare it to other countries, plus discussion of some of this years hot election topics, i.e. the youth vote and generational differences, candidate strategies, the role of local primaries and caucuses. Coffee served. Meet in the Community Room, 2nd Floor.

Spanish and French Films Next

On Tuesday March 11 at 6:00 PM Reel World presents the film Volver (Spain 2006 R). When their old aunt dies, two orphaned sisters return to the village where they were born are confronted with a revised view of their past. Avenue Montaigne (France 2005 PG-13) will be screened on March 25. Jessica, a beautiful young woman from the provinces, comes to Paris where she lands a job waiting tables at a chic bistro. The sophisticated people she meets there are as changed by her as she is by them.
