Website Experiment

Wood Library's website is going through a makeover. We want your ideas! On June 16 when you visit www.woodlibrary.org you will be redirected to a new opening page. During the transition period this page will be a mini-lab where we can try things out and you can give us your ideas. The plan is to make the library's website more engaging, informative and entertaining. Drop by to see what's happening and make a comment.

World! Goes to Dominican Republic Tuesday June 17 at 7:00pm

When Dottie and Perry Howland traveled to the Dominican Republic last July, they were not headed for the beaches or tourist sites. Instead, they were on a mission of good will to the bateyes (Haitian shanty towns), orphanages and sugar cane fields. Please share your "travel for goodwill" story in the discussion that follows.

Meta-Morph Contest for Adults
